

Pooled Horse Rental Agreement and Release

(A pooled horse is one leased for use in the arena only and under the terms listed below)

I, _____, (Player), hereby commit to the following terms to use horses provided by Virginia Polo, Inc. for the upcoming arena polo program at the Virginia Polo Center from May ____ to September _____.

_____ $2,800 – up to four(4) periods, three (3) times per week
_____ $1,400 – up to two (2) periods, three (3) times per week
_____ $600 – up to two (2) periods, three (3) times per week
The above amount is due upon execution of this Agreement.

_____ $50 - per period on a space available basis

Player understands that no refunds are due should the Player not play as contemplated in this Agreement.

It is understood that the above fee is inclusive of costs relating to horse care (feed, care, shoeing, exercising, etc.). It is understood that the horses provided are not for Player's exclusive use and the horses provided may vary from time to time.

Player understands that Virginia Polo, Inc's manager, or his designee, will be responsible for scheduling and assigning horses.

Player certifies that he/she has inspected the horses and that they are appropriate for his/her needs. Player understands that horses are unpredictable and can be dangerous at times for unexplainable reasons. Player understands and accepts the risk to himself/herself or others, up to and including death, may result from the use of the Horses.

Virginia Polo, Inc. makes no express or implied statement as to the fitness, suitability or safety of any horses provided to Player. Player hereby releases and agrees to hold the University of Virginia, University of Virginia Alumni Association, Virginia Polo, Inc., its Board of Directors, and employees and agents harmless for any injuries (including death) and/or damages that may result from this Agreement. Virginia Polo reserves the right to terminate this agreement immediately for any reason.
